Crossroads

Easterseals Crossroads is excited to offer Camp FUEL — a camp for adolescents with disabilities who are ages 11 - 17 years old (as of June 1, 2024). As a participant, your child will benefit from Fun and Unique Experiential Learning activities at Camp FUEL this summer. From skill building and special guests, to field trips and peer mentoring, we'll be sure to get your child excited about engaging in camp! Camp FUEL operates from Easterseals Crossroads, 4740 Kingsway Drive, Indianapolis.

Camp FUEL's design and model is able to meet the needs of campers who are:

- Able to participate independently as part of a small group (8-10 peers) during camp activities and on field trips with minimal support from staff
- Able to follow and complete 1-2 step directions
- Able to communicate their wants and needs
- Able to tolerate new environments and crowds within the community with minimal support from staff
- Able to be transported safely via staff members' personal vehicles (i.e., refrain from distracting the driver, unbuckling seatbelt, etc.)
- Ambulatory and exhibit consistent mobility with minimal use of supportive devices on a variety of different surfaces
- Able to tolerate the pace of camp out in the community
- Able to toilet independently
- Not demonstrate physically aggressive behavior towards others (i.e., biting, hitting, throwing, kicking, etc.)
- Not an elopement risk

Camp Cost Scholarships (first come, first served) are available based on eligibility.

Sessions are $250 each when registering by March 8 (or until sessions fill); and $329 after March 8.

Sessions fill quickly; register early. A $75 deposit is due at registration.

- All sessions operate from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; days vary due to holidays.
- Parents are asked to pack brown-bag lunches; snacks are available.
- Before and after camp care is available from 8 a.m. - 9 a.m. and from 3 p.m. - 5 p.m. for an additional fee of $10 per hour if preregistered before camp sessions begin and $12 per hour if drop in.
